Times, August 13, 2004), the "famous brand with the three stripes" (San Francisco Chronicle, July 7, 2002), and the "legendary Adidas three stripes" (Brand Strategy, September 27, 1999).

16. For decades, adidas extensively and continuously has used and promoted the Three-Stripe Mark in connection with apparel and footwear. In recent years, annual sales of products bearing the Three-Stripe Mark have totaled in the billions of dollars globally and in the hundreds of millions of dollars within the United States. The Three-Stripe Mark has achieved international fame and tremendous public recognition.

17. Since introducing its Three-Stripe Mark, adidas has spent millions of dollars promoting the mark and products bearing the mark. As a result of adidas' continuous and exclusive use of the Three-Stripe Mark in connection with its products, the mark enjoys wide public acceptance and association with adidas, and has come to be recognized widely and favorably by the public as an indicator of the origin of adidas' goods.

18. As a result of adidas' extensive use and promotion of its Three-Stripe Mark, adidas has built up and now owns valuable goodwill that is symbolized by the mark. The purchasing public has come to associate the Three-Stripe Mark with adidas.

19. Based, inter alia, on the strength of the Three-Stripe Mark, the duration and extent of use of the Three-Stripe Mark in connection with footwear and apparel, the duration and extent of advertising and publicity of the Three-Stripe Mark, the geographical extent or the trading area in which the Three-Stripe Mark has been used, the channels of the trade for the goods with which the Three-Stripe Mark is used, the degree of public recognition of the adidas Three-Stripe Mark, the adidas Three-Stripe Mark is "famous" as that term is used in Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)).

20. The Opposed Marks comprise images of athletic apparel, namely football uniforms, each including three parallel stripes along the length of the pants and around the sleeve as depicted below:

Application No. 85/116,716

Application No. 85/116,758

21. Applicant seeks to register the Opposed Marks as service marks for services identified as “Entertainment services, namely, collegiate football games and exhibitions” in International Trademark Class 41.

22. Upon information and belief, the Opposed Marks do not function as service marks for the services identified in the Applications.

23. Upon information and belief, the Opposed Marks do not function as service marks to identify the services identified in the Applications as services of the Applicant.

24. Upon information and belief, the Opposed Marks are not recognized as source-indicators for the services identified in the Applications.

25. Upon information and belief, the Opposed Marks do not function as service marks for the services identified in the Applications but are product elements of football uniforms and lack trademark distinctiveness.

26. Upon information and belief, the Opposed Marks have not acquired secondary meaning as trademarks.

27. Upon information and belief, the Applicant has not used the Opposed Marks as service marks for the services specified in the Applications.

28. Upon information and belief, as of the filing dates of the Applications, the Opposed Marks were not in use on or in connection with advertising of the identified services and the specimens of record do not demonstrate any such use prior to the filing dates of the Applications and/or publication dates of the Applications.

29. Upon information and belief, the Applicant had not made service mark use of the Opposed Marks at the time that it filed its use-based Applications.

30. The Applications for the Opposed Marks are void ab initio.

31. Upon information and belief, Applicant has not used the Opposed Marks on or in connection with the services specified in the Applications prior to the adidas' use of the Three-Stripe Mark.

32. The services specified in the Applications are closely related to the goods of adidas.

33. The Opposed Marks incorporate and use elements that are the same as and/or highly similar to the adidas Three-Stripe Mark.

34. In view of the similarity of the respective adidas Three-Stripe Mark and the Opposed Marks and because the goods and services of adidas and Applicant are closely related, it is alleged that the Opposed Marks so resemble the adidas Three-Stripe Mark as to be likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive.

35. The Opposed Marks so resemble famous adidas Three-Stripe Mark as to be likely, when used in connection with the services of Applicant, to cause dilution of the distinctive quality of adidas Three-Stripe Mark within the meaning of Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(c) and thereby lessen the capacity of the adidas Three-

Stripe Mark to identify and distinguish the goods of adidas and cause dilution of the distinctive quality of the registered adidas Three-Stripe Mark.

36. The use and registration of the Opposed Marks will erode the association of the Three-Stripe Mark with adidas, lessen the capacity of these trademarks to identify adidas as the source of apparel to customers and potential customers who would expect the trademarks to identify genuine and authorized products of adidas, blur the distinctive quality of said trademarks and otherwise cause dilution of the adidas Three-Stripe Mark.

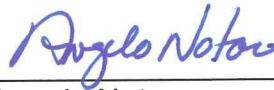

37. adidas will be damaged by the registration of the Opposed Marks, among other reasons, because if Applicant is granted the registration herein opposed, it would thereby obtain at least a prima facie exclusive right to the use of the Opposed Marks.

38. For the foregoing reasons, Applicant is not entitled to registration of Applicant's marks and is not entitled to the exclusive use thereof.

WHEREFORE, Opposers, by their attorneys, respectfully request that their opposition be sustained and that the registration of application nos. 85/116,716 and 85/116,758 be denied.
